

Community Cohesion:

Sanskriti UK subscribe to an approach of practical faith and optimism that teaches mankind how to lead a worthy and useful life, respecting each other as equals. Mrs. Manju Dubey, Managing Trustee and Dr Arun Trivedi, Secretary and Trustee accompanied by patrons and Advisers to the organization paid a visit to Gurudwara Sri Guru Singh Sabha, Southall to promote inter-faith and resultant community cohesion. They also support working with various ethnic communities irrespective of cast, creed, colour, race and religion. They interacted with Sardar Didar Singh Randhawa, recently elected President of the Gurudwara and his team there at and participated in Guru ka Langar (Community lunch).

Seen in the picture are President Randhawa, Surinder Singh Purewal and Harry Randhawa receiving Trustees and Advisers of Sanskriti UK at the entrance of the Gurudwara.

Dr Diwakar Sukul (L) and Mr. Rakesh Dubey (R)

Sanskriti UK Strengthened:

Dr Diwakar Sukul, a Psychologist & Trainer on stress management and also founder director of the Kamkus Clinic offering integrated health care in the UK and Germany along with Mr Rakesh Dubey formerly Attache, Cultural Affairs at the Indian High Commission, London (UK) joined Sanskriti UK as Trustees. Congratulations to Dr Sukul and Mr. Dubey.

Truly one learns out of Books:

Sanskriti UK promotes understanding of the history of India, art, Indian System of medicines, Indian Culture & heritage and Hindi language in different ways including supporting of establishment of libraries. Trustees, Patrons, Advisers of the organization with Manju Dubey as a Managing Trustee participated in inauguration of MAA SARASWATI PUSTAKALAYA at Shree Ram Mandir, Southall.

Seen in the picture besides others are Head Pujari of Shree Ram Mandir, Chris Gopaul, Dr Mahipal Verma, Umesh Sharma, JP, Arun Thakur and Nirmal Sharma patrons with Ved Mohla MBE & Tejinder Sharma, Cllr Zakia Zuberi, Jaya Verma, Advisers and Ujjwal Banga Trustee of Sanskriti UK.

Sanskriti UK –Mission Guangzhou (PRC)

Dr Arun Trivedi, Secretary & Trustee, Sanskriti UK was on a mission to Guangzhou (PRC) at the invitation of Global Business Associates. While executing agenda of addressing various panels of 'The China IPO & UK Inward Investment Forum @ CISMEF 2008' with Dr Philip Dews, Founder Chairman of ASEAN Regional Business Forum, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia & Grace Bian, Managing Director, Global Business Associates, London (UK) Dr. Arun Trivedi spoke to the cross section of attending fraternity that the Indian culture is one of the most tolerant and ancient cultures of the world which provides a world view of peace and harmony.

At the invitation of Guangzhou University of Foreign Studies, Dr Trivedi had a productive discussion with Prof (Dr) Zhao Junfeng, Director of MTI Education Centre on cultural and heritage related issues pertaining to the UK, China and India.

Prof Junfeng appreciated the gesture of this visit and expressed his keen desire to participate in Sanskriti UK's future activities. A copy of the Souvenir was presented to Prof Zhao Junfeng which he consigned to the centre's library. The event was widely covered by media including Guangdong Television (GTV).

